Brazil's first floating lodge

 ecolodge
DA BARRA

Your adventure STARTS HERE!

Besides being the first floating lodge in Brazil, it brings the most modern, comfortable, intelligent and sustainable concept of sport fishing. Ecolodge da Barra is located at the confluence of Teles-Pires and Juruena rivers, where together they form the Tapajós river - land of rare beauty and famous for being the most secluded and preserved Amazonian biome.

“ One of the most secluded and preserved Amazon biomes, offering 20+ fish species. ”
